"GRIT TO GLITZ"

The Extraordinary Adventures of Emily 'Mickey' Hahn

Synopsis

In 1924, 19-year-old Emily 'Mickey' Hahn drove across America in a model T-Ford, dressed as a man with a pistol under her seat. During her journey, she wrote letters to her family chronicling her incredible adventures, who forwarded them to the editor of The New Yorker Magazine, kick-starting a 70 year association with the publication.

Set around the 1930s, "Grit to Glitz", written and led by Sunitra Martinelli, is an all-original musical celebration of adventurer and American literary treasure Emily Hahn, whose strong willed, unconventional ways broke the rules in a male dominated world.
